Plaintiff hereby alleges as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. Plaintiff JANE DOE ("Plaintiff" or "Doe"), at all relevant times mentioned herein, and currently, resides in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

ORIGINAL

FILED

1 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendant THE
 2 WEINSTEIN COMPANY LLC (hereinafter "Weinstein Co.") is now and at all relevant times a
 3 corporation or other form of legal entity doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of 4 California.

5 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendant THE
 6 WEINSTEIN COMPANY HOLDINGS, LLC (hereinafter "Weinstein Co. Holdings") is now
 7 and at all relevant times a corporation or other form of legal entity doing business in the County of 8 Los Angeles, State of California.

9 4. DEFENDANT WEINSTEIN CO. HOLDINGS and DEFENDANT
 10 WEINSTEIN CO. hereinafter shall be collectively referred to as "the Companies."

11 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that at all relevant
 12 times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling 13 shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest, and/or predecessor in 14 interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other 15 Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the 16 other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below.

17 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that each Defendant
 18 acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant 19 knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, and 20 aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

21 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that at all relevant
 22 times, the Companies are joint ventures in that each business combined their property, skill or 23 knowledge with intent to carry out a single business undertaking, each has an ownership interest in 24 the business, they have joint control over the business even if they agreed to delegate control, and 25 they have agreed to share the profits and losses of the business and that together, at all relevant 26 times herein, the Companies regularly conducted business in California in the production of films.

27 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendant
 28 HARVEY WEINSTEIN (hereinafter "Weinstein") is an individual who at all relevant times

1 herein, is a resident of the County of New York who regularly came to this County to conduct 2 business.

3 9. Venue properly lies in this county in that all Defendants regularly conduct business
4 in this county and that the conduct described herein were committed in this county.

5 10. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, partnership, associate
6 or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 25, inclusive, are currently unknown
7 to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and 8 believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is 9 legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings referred to herein, and caused
10 injury and damage proximately thereby to Plaintiff as hereinafter alleged. Plaintiff will seek leave
11 of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities of the Defendants
12 designated herein as DOES when the same have been ascertained. Whenever in this complaint
13 reference is made to "Defendants," such allegation shall be deemed to mean the acts of Defendants 14 acting individually, jointly, and/or severally.

15 11. Except as hereinafter specifically described, Defendants and each of them, are and 16 were the agents and/or employees of the other Defendants, and in acting as described herein were 17 acting within the scope of their authority or employment as agents and/or employees thereof, and 18 with the permission and consent of the other Defendants.

19 12. In late 2011, Plaintiff met Defendant Weinstein at a party that Defendants were 20 hosting at the Chateau Marmont. Plaintiff was an actress and informed Weinstein of the same
21 when she was introduced to him at the event. Upon learning that Plaintiff was an actress, 22 Weinstein offered to assist her with her acting career and requested her telephone number. She 23 obliged.

24 13. Over the next few years, Weinstein invited Plaintiff to attend awards show parties
25 that the Defendants hosted and maintained regular communication with Plaintiff every few months 26 thereafter.

27 14. In late 2015, Plaintiff met Weinstein at the Montage Hotel in Beverly Hills, 28 California to discuss a prospective acting job on a television show called "Marco Polo" as well as

1 acting in two to three other projects. At some point, he said he wanted to masturbate in front of 2 her. Plaintiff told Weinstein that she did not want him to masturbate in front of her. Weinstein
3 told her that he would not touch her, but "only" wanted her to watch him. Despite her telling 4 Weinstein "no," Weinstein proceeded to grip her wrist with one hand while using the other to 5 masturbate in front of her until completion.

6 15. In early spring of 2016, Weinstein contacted Plaintiff again to meet with him at the 7 Montage Hotel in Beverly Hills to celebrate her upcoming role in Marco Polo giving her the 8 impression that she had been chosen for the part. Plaintiff agreed. At some point, Weinstein
9 excused himself and returned wearing a bathrobe. Before Plaintiff could leave, Weinstein grabbed
10 her and pulled her into the bedroom. Plaintiff told Weinstein that she did not want to do anything
11 sexual with him. He forcefully threw Plaintiff onto the bed. He pulled down her jeans and started 12 to orally copulate her. Plaintiff pushed Weinstein's head off of her and told him, "Stop!"
13 Weinstein then used his massive weight and strength to force himself on her, pushing his penis
14 inside of her vagina without a condom. After he withdrew, he gripped her with one hand while 15 using his other hand to masturbate. Plaintiff finally broke free from his grasp and immediately left 16 the bedroom and suite.

17 16. Weinstein contacted her thereafter and acted as if nothing had happened. He told 18 her he was coming to Los Angeles. Plaintiff swore at him and hung up the phone.

19 17. Plaintiff never received a job offer for the Marco Polo project even though she had 20 been previously told that she would be a perfect addition for the show. Nor did she receive any 21 offers for other projects that Weinstein had discussed with her.

22 18. Prior to the incidents involving Plaintiff, the Companies' executives, officers, 23 directors, managing agents, and employees had actual knowledge of Weinstein's repeated acts of 24 sexual misconduct with women. In particular, the Companies were aware of Weinstein's pattern 25 of using his power and the promise of procuring jobs to coerce and force actresses to engage in 26 sexual acts with him.

27 19. Based upon information and belief, the Companies were aware of multiple claims
28 of sexual misconduct against Weinstein, which were settled prior to the initiation of litigation.

20. Based upon information and belief, the Companies' knowledge of multiple claims of sexual misconduct against Weinstein is evidenced in their 2015 employment contract with Weinstein. The contract with Weinstein states that if Weinstein is sued for sexual harassment or other "misconduct" that results in a settlement or judgment against the Companies, Weinstein must reimburse the Companies for such settlements or judgments and that Weinstein must pay the Companies liquidated damages of $250,000 for the first such instance, $500,000 for the second such instance, $750,000 for the third such instance, and $1,000,000 for each additional instance. Moreover, the contract states that as long as Weinstein pays, it constitutes a "cure" for the misconduct and the Companies can take no further action against Weinstein, such as terminating him.

21. Plaintiff further alleges that the Companies and DOES 1-25 are strictly liable for Defendant Weinstein's actions under the principles of respondeat superior, as alleged herein, and had advance knowledge that Defendant Weinstein would engage in this despicable conduct while acting within the scope of his employment and by their actions and inactions ratified, authorized and condoned this unlawful behavior.

22. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation, embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, and economic harm, all in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

23. The aforementioned conduct by Defendants was willful, wanton, and malicious. At all relevant times, Defendants acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and feelings. Defendants also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that their conduct was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that Defendants intended to cause fear, physical injury and/or pain and suffering to the Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary damages from Defendants according to proof.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Sexual Battery in Violation of Cal. Civ. Code § 1708.5 Against All Defendants)

24. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

25. Cal. Civ. Code Section 1708.5(a) provides: A person commits a sexual battery who does any of the following: (1) acts with the intent to cause a harmful or offensive contact with an intimate part of another, and a sexually offensive contact with that person directly or indirectly results. (2) Acts with the intent to cause a harmful or offensive contact with another by use of his or her intimate part, and a sexually offensive contact with that person directly or indirectly results. (3) Acts to cause an imminent apprehension of the conduct described in paragraph (1) or (2), and a sexually offensive contact with that person directly or indirectly results.

26. Cal. Civ. Code Section 1708.5(d) defines "intimate part" as the sexual organ, anus, groin, or buttocks of any person, or the breast of a female.

27. Cal. Civ. Code Section 1708.5(f) defines "offensive contact" to mean contact that offends a reasonable sense of personal dignity.

28. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Weinstein committed the act of civil sexual battery in violation of Cal. Civ. Code Section 1708.5, when on or about early 2016, Defendant, willfully, maliciously, intentionally, and without the consent of Plaintiff subjected her to the forceful, harmful and/or offensive touching of Plaintiff's breasts, buttocks, and/or vagina, including viciously raping her by way of vaginal penetration against her will, without her consent, and in spite of her express objection.

29. Plaintiff further alleges that the Companies and DOES 1-25 are strictly liable for Defendant Weinstein's actions under the principles of respondeat superior, as alleged herein and otherwise had advance knowledge that Defendant Weinstein would engage in this despicable conduct while acting within the scope of his employment and by their actions and inactions ratified, authorized and condoned this unlawful behavior.

30. As a direct and/or proximate result of Weinstein's unlawful conduct as alleged hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation,

1 embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, all in an amount exceeding the
2 jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

3 31. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged 4 hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered economic harm, loss of earnings, and other damages, all in an
5 amount that exceeds the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court, according to proof at trial.

6 32. The aforementioned conduct by Defendants was willful, wanton, and malicious. At 7 all relevant times, Defendants acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and feelings.
8 Weinstein also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that his conduct
9 was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed and 10 believes that Defendants intended to cause fear, physical injury and/or pain and suffering to the 11 Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary
12 damages from Defendants according to proof at trial.

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Gender Violence in Violation of Cal. Civ. Code § 52.4 Against Defendant Weinstein Only)

15 33. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained
16 hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

17 34. Cal. Civ. Code Section 52.4(c) defines "gender violence" as: (1) one or more acts 18 that would constitute a criminal offense under state law that has as an element the use, attempted 19 use, or threatened use of physical force against the person or property of another, committed at 20 least in part based on the gender of the victim, whether or not those acts have resulted in criminal
21 complaints, charges, prosecution, or conviction. (2) A physical intrusion or physical invasion of a 22 sexual nature under coercive conditions, whether or not those acts have resulted in criminal 23 charges, complaints, charges, prosecution, or conviction. Cal. Civ. Code Section 52.4(e) provides:
24 Notwithstanding any other laws that may establish the liability of an employer for the acts of an
25 employee, this section does not establish any civil liability of a person because of his or her status
26 as an employer, unless the employer personally committed an act of gender violence.

27 35. Plaintiff alleges that, on or about early 2016, and prior to that, Defendant Weinstein
28 violated Cal. Civ. Code Section 52.4 in that one or more acts he inflicted on Plaintiff constitutes a

0107/50710

1 criminal offense under state law that has an element of use, attempted use, or threatened use of 2 physical force against her person, committed at least in part based on Plaintiff's gender, whether or 3 not those acts have resulted in criminal complaints, charges, prosecution, or conviction.

4 36. Plaintiff alleges that, on or about early 2016, and prior to that, Defendant Weinstein
 5 violated Cal. Civ. Code Section 52.4 in that he engaged in a physical intrusion or physical invasion
 6 of a sexual nature under coercive conditions, even if those acts have not yet resulted in criminal 7 complaints, charges, prosecution, or conviction.

8 37. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful conduct as alleged
 9 hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation,
 10 embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, all in an amount exceeding the 11 jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

12 38. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful conduct as alleged 13 hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered economic harm and other consequential damages, all in an 14 amount according to proof at trial.

15 39. The aforementioned conduct by Defendant was willful, wanton, and malicious. At 16 all relevant times, Defendant acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and feelings.
 17 Defendant also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that his conduct
 18 was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed and 19 believes that Defendant intended to cause fear, physical injury and/or pain and suffering to the 20 Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary
 21 damages from Defendants according to proof at trial.

22 40. Plaintiff has incurred, and will continue to incur, attorneys' fees in the prosecution
 23 of this action and therefore demands such reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as set by the Court.

24 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (For Battery Against All Defendants)

26 41. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained
 27 hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

28 42. In performing the acts described herein, Defendant Weinstein acted with the intent

1 to make a harmful and offensive contact with Plaintiff's person.

2 43. Defendant Weinstein did, in fact, bring himself into offensive and unwelcome
3 contact with Plaintiff as described hereinabove.

4 44. At all relevant times, Plaintiff found the contact by Defendant to be offensive to her
5 person and dignity. At no time did Plaintiff consent to any of the acts by Defendant alleged 6 hereinabove.

7 45. As a result of Defendant Weinstein's acts as hereinabove alleged, Plaintiff was 8 physically harmed and/or experienced offensive contact with her person.

9 46. Plaintiff further alleges that the Companies and DOES 1-25 are strictly liable for 10 Defendant Weinstein's actions under the principles of respondeat superior, as alleged herein and
11 otherwise had advance knowledge that Defendant Weinstein would engage in this despicable
12 conduct while acting within the scope of his employment and by their actions and inactions
13 ratified, authorized and condoned this unlawful behavior.

14 47. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged
15 hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation,
16 embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, economic harm and other
17 consequential damages, all in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior
18 Court according to proof at trial.

19 48. The aforementioned conduct by Defendants was willful, wanton, and malicious. At
20 all relevant times, Defendants acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and feelings.
21 Defendants also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that their
22 conduct was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed
23 and believes that Defendants intended to cause fear, physical injury and/or pain and suffering to
24 the Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary
25 damages from Defendants according to proof at trial.

26 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 (Assault Against All Defendants)

28 49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained

1 hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

2 50. When Defendant Weinstein charged at Plaintiff, Weinstein intended to cause
3 Plaintiff apprehension of an imminent harmful and offensive contact with her person.

4 51. As a result of Defendant Weinstein's acts, Plaintiff was in fact, placed in great 5 apprehension of imminent harmful and offensive contact with her person.

6 52. In performing the acts alleged hereinabove, Defendant Weinstein acted with the 7 intent of making contact with Plaintiff's person.

8 53. At no time did Plaintiff consent to any of the acts by Weinstein alleged 9 hereinabove.

10 54. Defendant's conduct as described above, caused Plaintiff to be apprehensive that 11 Defendant would subject her to further intentional invasions of her right to be free from offensive
12 and harmful contact and demonstrated that at all times material herein, Defendant had a present 13 ability to subject her to an intentional offensive and harmful touching.

14 55. Plaintiff further alleges that the Companies and DOES 1-25 are strictly liable for 15 Defendant Weinstein's actions under the principles of respondeat superior, as alleged herein and
16 otherwise had advance knowledge that Defendant Weinstein would engage in this despicable
17 conduct while acting within the scope of his employment and by their actions and inactions
18 ratified, authorized and condoned this unlawful behavior.

19 56. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged
20 hereinabove, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation,
21 embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety, and economic harm, all in an amount
22 exceeding the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

23 57. The aforementioned conduct by Defendants was willful, wanton, and malicious. At
24 all relevant times, Defendants acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and feelings.
25 Defendants also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that their
26 conduct was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed
27 and believes that Defendants intended to cause fear, physical injury and/or pain and suffering to
28 the Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary

1 damages from Defendants according to proof.

2 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (For Negligence against all Defendants)

4 58. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained
5 hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

6 59. Defendants committed the negligent actions and/or negligent failures to act, as set
7 forth hereinabove and those acts proximately caused the emotional, physical, and financial injuries
8 visited upon Plaintiff.

9 60. Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty of care not to cause her emotional distress.

10 61. Defendants breached this duty of care by way of their own conduct as alleged 11 herein.

12 62. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' extreme and outrageous acts, 13 Plaintiff has suffered emotional distress, humiliation, and embarrassment, economic harm, all in 14 amount exceeding the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

15 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (For Negligent Retention or Supervision against the Companies Only)

17 63. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation contained
18 hereinabove and incorporates the same herein as though fully set forth herein.

19 64. The Companies had a mandatory duty of care to properly hire, train, retain,
20 supervise, and discipline their employees so as to avoid unreasonable harm to citizens. With 21 deliberate indifference, the Companies failed to take necessary, proper or adequate measures in 22 order to prevent the violation of Plaintiff's rights and injury to Plaintiff. Among other acts and/or 23 failures to act, the Companies retained Defendant Weinstein and did not terminate him despite 24 knowing, or should have known of, his long and well-known history of abusing and sexually 25 harassing women based on sex.

26 65. The Companies breached this duty of care by failing to adequately train employees
27 to not sexually discriminate and/or harass women. This lack of adequate supervisory training 28 and/or policies and procedures demonstrates a failure to make reasonable attempts and to prevent

1 sexually discriminatory behavior toward women. In addition, the retention of Defendant
2 Weinstein despite his well-known predatory pattern of abuse and harassment was negligent.

3 66. The Companies had a duty to control Defendant Weinstein in his interactions with 4 women during meetings taking place within the course and scope of his employment in order to 5 prevent the reasonably foreseeable harm that he would sexually harass and/or sexually assault 6 them.

7 67. The Companies' negligence in supervising and/or retaining Weinstein was a
8 substantial factor in causing Plaintiff's harm.

9 68. As a direct and proximate result of the Companies' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff has 10 suffered emotional distress, humiliation, and embarrassment, economic harm, all in amount
11 exceeding the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court according to proof at trial.

12 69. The aforementioned conduct by the Companies was willful, wanton, and malicious.
13 At all relevant times, the Companies acted with conscious disregard of the Plaintiff's rights and 14 feelings. The Companies were aware of the probable dangerous consequences of retaining or 15 adequately supervising Weinstein and allowing him to meet with women under the guise of 16 procuring work for them. The Companies acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard
17 for the fact that Weinstein's conduct was certain to cause injury and/or humiliation to the Plaintiff.
18 By virtue of the foregoing, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary damages
19 from the Companies according to proof at trial.

20 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment be entered in her favor against Defendants, and 21 each of them, as follows:

- 22 1. For a money judgment representing compensatory damages including consequential 23 damages, lost wages, earning, and all other sums of money, together with interest 24 on these amounts, according to proof;
- 25 2. For an award of money judgment for mental pain and anguish and severe emotional 26 distress, according to proof;
- 27 3. For punitive and exemplary damages according to proof;
- 28 4. For attorneys' fees and costs;

5. For prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and
6. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
